

J j

jacket

Dad wears an old jacket when he works in the garden.

A jacket is a short coat.

jail

A bad man tried so steal Jack's bicycle.
The policeman caught the bad man.
He took the bad man to jail.
The bad man will be locked up in the jail.
A jail is a prison,

jam

Jam is made from fruit.

We eat jam.

We spread jam on bread.

What kind of jam do you like best?

Do you like strawberry jam or plum jam or gooseberry jam?

Thin jam is called jelly.

January

January brings the snow.
Makes our feet and fingers glow.

January is a month.
There are twelve months in a year.
There are 12 months.

January, February, March,
April, May, June, July,
August, September, October,
November, December

jar

We put jam in a jar. It is a glass jar.

A jar of jam.

The Forty Thieves hid in big jars.

jewel

A jewel is a precious stone.

There is a jewel in Mother's ring.

job

What is the baker's job?

His job is to bake bread.

That is his work.

What is the gardener's job?

His job is to dig in the garden.

That is his job.

join

The children join hands.

They are going to dance in a ring.

They put their hands together.

Kitty wants to join in.

She wants to take part in the fun.

joke

Uncle Tom does funny things to make us laugh.

He likes to joke. He is joking.

He tells us a joke. It is a funny story.

jolly

“Ha-ha-ha!” laughed the jolly old man, and “Ha-ha-ha!” laughed he.

“I’m jolly all night and jolly all day, as jolly as jolly can be.”

journey

Dad is going on a journey to London.

He is going on a trip to London.

He is going on a journey by train.

jug

There is a handle on the jug.

The jug is full of milk.

It is a milk jug.

July

July is a month.

There are twelve months in a year.
there are 12 months.

January, February, March,
April, May, June, July,
August, September, October,
November, December

jump

Jack's pony can jump over the fence.
The pony leaps into the air.
Then it goes over the fence, and lands
on its feet.
It is jumping.

June

June brings tulips, lilies, roses, fills the children's hands with posies.

June is a month.

There are twelve months in a year.
There are 12 months.

January, February, March,
April, May, June, July,
August, September, October,
November, December

jungle

Wild animals live in the jungle.
There are thick bushes and trees in the jungle.

