

Breaking a word 1

Say each word from the following box. Look at the letters carefully. It might help to break the word down into smaller parts.

For example: sat-is-fact-ory

hungry vegetable differently impossibility
satisfactory separate remember tomorrow
lightning grocery

Answer the following questions and then write the word.

1. hungry What are the last 3 letters? ____ ____ ____
There is no vowel between g and r.
2. vegetable What vowel comes on each side of g? _____

3. differently What vowel comes before and after r? _____ Write the word differ. _____
4. impossibility How many i's are there? _____
Circle them. Write the word impossible _____.
Drop the e. Add -ity. Write the word. _____.
5. satisfactory Circle the word sat, the word is, and the word factory. Put them together and write the word. _____

Breaking a word 2

hungry vegetable differently impossibility
satisfactory separate remember tomorrow
lightning grocery

Answer the following questions and then write the word.

1. separate What vowel comes before r? _____
After r? _____ Do you see the word rate?
Circle it and write the word. _____
2. remember Remember that this word has a pair of em's. Circle each em. Do you see the word member? Write the whole word. _____
3. tomorrow How many m's are there? _____
How many r's? _____ Write the word. _____
4. grocery Write the vowel that comes between c and r? _____
Write the word. _____

